Confirmation

We herewith confirm that edding does not carry out any animal testing for their products and that edding requires also from their suppliers not to make any animal testing.

However, it is not possible to exclude that certain ingredients used in a finished product have been subject to animal testing, e.g. to meet the information requirements of the REACH-Regulation with regard to human health or for studying environmental effects of chemicals. Such tests have to be carried out in compliance with the EU legislation.
